The Commissions of Inquiry (Amendment) Ordinance, 1986

No. 6 of 1986

Promulgated by the President in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance further to amend the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952.

WHEREAS the House of the People is not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 123 of the Constitu-tution, the President is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Ordinance may be called the Commissions of Inquiry (Amendment) Ordinance, 1986.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of Act 60 of 1952.—In section 3 of the Commissions of Inquiry Act, 1952, after sub-section (4), the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“(5) The provisions of sub-section (4) shall not apply if the appropriate Government is satisfied that in the interests of the sovereignty and integrity of India, the security of the State, friendly relations with foreign States or in the public interest, it is not expedient to lay before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, the report, or any part thereof, of the Commission on the inquiry made by the Commission under sub-section (1), and issues a notification to that effect in the Official Gazette.

(6) Every notification issued under sub-section (5) shall be laid before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, if it is sitting as soon as may be after the issue of the notification, and if it is not sitting, within seven days of its reassembly, and the appropriate Government shall seek the approval of the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State, to the notification by a resolution moved within a period of fifteen days beginning with the day on which the notification is so laid before the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State and if the House of the People or, as the case may be, the Legislative Assembly of the State makes any modification in the notification or directs that the notification should cease to have effect, the notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be.”
